CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

FEAST OF SAINT NINIAN OF GALLOWAY
INTRODUCTORY RITES

As the introit is sung, the Holy Father comes to the altar, kisses it, and incenses it. With the ministers, he goes to the chair.

WELCOME

The Most Reverend Mario Joseph Conti, Archbishop of Glasgow, welcomes the Holy Father.

GREETING

The Holy Father and the faithful remain standing and make the sign of the cross. The Holy Father says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

\( \text{R.} \) Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

\( \text{R.} \) And also with you.
INTRODUCTION TO THE CELEBRATION

The Holy Father introduces the celebration:

As we prepare to celebrate the mystery of Christ’s love, let us acknowledge our failures and ask the Lord for pardon and strength.

The Holy Father and the congregation:

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have sinned through my own fault, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do; and I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God.

The Holy Father:

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.
KYRIE
(De Angelis)

The Kyrie is sung by the choir and assembly:

Kyrie, eleison. Christe,

Eleison. Kyrie,

Eleison. Kyrie,

Eleison.
GLORIA

The Gloria is sung by the choir and assembly:

Glory to God in the highest,
    and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
    we worship you, we give you thanks,
    we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
    have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
    receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
    Jesus Christ,
    with the Holy Spirit
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.
OPENING PRAYER

The Holy Father, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray.

He extends his hands and prays:

Lord our God,
you brought the Picts and Britons to a knowledge of the faith
through the teaching of Saint Ninian, the bishop.
In your goodness, listen to our prayers:
grant that we, who have received from him
the light of your truth,
may remain strong in faith
and active in works of charity.
We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ,
your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.
FIRST READING

Our gifts differ according to the grace given us

A reader proclaims the first reading from the ambo.

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans. 12: 3-13

In the light of the grace I have received I want to urge each one among you not to exaggerate his real importance. Each of you must judge himself soberly by the standard of the faith God has given him. Just as each of our bodies has several parts and each part has a separate function, so all of us, in union with Christ, form one body, and as parts of it we belong to each other. Our gifts differ according to the grace given us. If your gift is prophecy, then use it as your faith suggests; if administration, then use it for administration; if teaching, then use it for teaching. Let the preachers deliver sermons, the almsgivers give freely, the officials be diligent, and those who do works of mercy do them cheerfully. Do not let your love be a pretence, but sincerely prefer good to evil. Love each other as much as brothers should, and have a profound respect for each other. Work for the Lord with untiring effort and with great earnestness of spirit. If you have hope, this will make you cheerful. Do not give up if trials come; and keep on praying. If any of the saints are in need you must share with them; and you should make hospitality your special care.

This is the word of the Lord.

Ré. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PsALM

Ps 22

Ré. His goodness shall follow me always to the end of my days.

1. The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose.
   Near restful waters he leads me to revive my drooping spirits. Ré.

2. In truth he guides me along the right path,
   If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear.
   You are there with your crook and staff, with these you give me comfort. Ré.
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil, my cup is overflowing. Ṛ.

4. Goodness and kindness shall surely follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever, forever and ever. Ṛ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.

Ṛ. Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.

Falghaibh is teagaisgibh a h-uile cinneadh, the mise maille ribh gu deireadh an t-saoghalt.

Go make disciples of all the nations. I am with you to the end of time.

Ṛ. Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.

Fosgail ar cridhe, a’ Thighearnarna, ‘s gun gabh sinn ri briathran do Mhic.

Open our hearts, Lord, open our hearts, Lord, that we may hear the words of your Son.

Ṛ. Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.
The deacon who is to proclaim the gospel bows to the Holy Father.
In a low voice he asks his blessing:

Father, give me your blessing.

The Holy Father says in a low voice:

The Lord be in your heart and on your lips, that you may worthily proclaim his holy Gospel. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, ✝ and of the Holy Spirit.

The deacon answers:

Amen.

GOSPEL

The harvest is rich but the labourers are few

The deacon greets the assembled faithful and announces the Gospel:

The Lord be with you.

✠. And also with you.

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint Luke.

10: 1-9

✠. Glory to you, O Lord.
The deacon incenses the book and proclaims the gospel.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, ‘The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, “Peace to this house!” And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, “The Kingdom of God is very near to you.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

While the choir and the assembly repeat the acclamation, the deacon carries the Book of the Gospels to the Holy Father, who kisses it and blesses the assembly with it.
HOMILY

The Holy Father preaches the homily.
A period of silence is observed after the homily.

The deacon incenses the Holy Father and people.

Qui cum Passióni voluntárie traderétur,

The Holy Father takes the bread and, raising it a little above the altar, continues:

He bows slightly, as the concelebrants extend their right hands:

Accípite et manducáte ex hoc omnes:

He shows the consecrated host to the people, places it on the paten, and genuflects in adoration. Then he continues:

Símili modo, postquam cenátum est,

He takes the chalice, and, raising it a little above the altar, continues:

accípiens et cálicem
íterum grátias agens dedit discípulis suis, dicens:

He bows slightly, as the concelebrants extend their right hands:

He shows the chalice to the people, places it on the altar, and genuflects in adoration. Then he sings:

My- sté- ri- um fí- de- i.
The people with concelebrants:

When we eat this bread and drink this cup we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, until you come in glory.

Then, with hands extended, the Holy Father together with the concelebrants says:

CC Mémores ígitur mortis et resurrectiónis eius, tibi, Dómine, panem vitæ et cálicem salútis offérimus, grátias agéntes quia nos dignos habuísti astáre coram te et tibi ministráre.

Et súpplices deprecámur ut Córporis et Sánguinis Christi partícipes a Spíritu Sancto congregémur in unum.

He joins his hands.

With hands extended, a concelebrant says:

1C Recordáre, Dómine, Ecclésiæ tuæ toto orbe diffúsæ, ut eam in caritáte perfícias una cum Papa nostro Benedícto et me indígno fámulo tuo et unívéroso clero.

He joins his hands.

With hands extended, another concelebrant continues:

The congregation sings:

With hands extended, the Holy Father continues alone:

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day. In your mercy keep us free from sin and protect us from all anxiety as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

He joins his hands.

The people end the prayer with the acclamation:

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever.
SIGN OF PEACE

Then the Holy Father, with hands extended, says aloud:

Lord Jesus Christ,
you said to your apostles:
I leave you peace, my peace I give you.
Look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom
where you live for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

The Holy Father, extending and joining his hands, adds:

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
R. And also with you.

Then the deacon adds:
Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

The Holy Father gives the sign of peace to those around the altar.
AGNUS DEI

Then the following is sung:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

As the Agnus Dei is being sung, the Holy Father takes the host and breaks it over the paten.

He places a small piece in the chalice, saying inaudibly:

Hæc commíxtio Córporis et Sánguinis Dómini nostri Iesu Christi fiat accipiéntibus nobis in vitam ætérmam.

Then the Holy Father joins his hands and says inaudibly:

Dómine Iesu Christe, Fíli Dei vivi, qui ex voluntáte Patris, cooperánnte Spíritu Sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificásti: líbera me per hoc sacrosánctum Corpus et Sánguinem tuum ab ómnibus iniquitátabus meis et univérsis malis: et fac me tuis semper inhæréré mandátis, et a te numquam separári permíttas.
or:

_Percéptio Córporis et Sánguinis tui,_
_Dómine Iesu Christe,_
_non mihi provéniat in iudícium._
_et condemnatióinem:_
_sed pro tua pietáte prosit mihi_
_ad tutaméntum mentís et córporis,_
_et ad medélam percipiéndam._

COMMUNION

The Holy Father genuflects.
With host and chalice elevated, he faces the people and says aloud:

This is the Lamb of God
_who takes away the sins of the world._
_Happy are those_
_who are called to his supper._

He adds, with the people:

_Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,_
_but only say the word and I shall be healed._

Facing the altar, he says inaudibly:

_Corpus Christi custódiat me in vitam ætérmam._

He consumes the body of Christ, then he takes the chalice and says inaudibly:

_Sanguis Christi custódiat me in vitam ætérmam._
He drinks the blood of Christ.
The Holy Father administers Holy Communion. He takes a host for each one, raises it a little, and shows it, saying:

The body of Christ.

The communicant answers:

Amen.

and receives communion.

As all go to receive communion, appropriate hymns are sung by the choir and people.

After the distribution of communion, a moment of silent prayer follows.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The Holy Father, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray.

He extends his hands and prays:

Lord our God,

you give us the holy body and blood of your Son.

May the salvation we celebrate be our undying hope.

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

READING

_I loved wisdom more than health or beauty_

The reader:

A reading from the book of Wisdom. 7: 7-10.15-16

I prayed, and understanding was given to me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer; for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps.
May God grant me to speak as he would wish and express thoughts worthy of his gifts,
since he himself is the guide of Wisdom,
since he directs the sages.
We are indeed in his hand, we ourselves and our words, with all our understanding, too, and technical knowledge.

This is the word of the Lord.
\[ \textsf{R.} \text{ Thanks be to God.} \]

PRAYER

You sent us your Son
to teach us by word and example

Send your Spirit upon those you have called to share their knowledge with gentle patience;
may they endeavour always to bring the truth to eager minds.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.
I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth: for thou hast magnified thy name, and thy Word, above all things.
When I called upon thee, thou hearest me: and endowedst my soul with much strength.
All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth.
Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.
For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

The Lord shall make good his loving-kindness toward me: yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever; despise not then the works of thine own hands.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
READING

_In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus_

A reader proclaims the reading from the ambo.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians. 2: 5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
HYMN

The choir and the congregation sing: O THOU WHO CAMEST FROM ABOVE.

GOSPEL

The Son of Man come to serve and to give his life

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark.

10: 35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, ‘Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.’ And he said to them, ‘What is it you want me to do for you?’ And they said to him, ‘Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.’ But Jesus said to them, ‘You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?’ They replied, ‘We are able.’ Then Jesus said to them, ‘The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.’
When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, ‘You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognise as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.’

The Book of the Gospels is brought to the Archbishop and the Holy Father, who kiss it as a sign of reverence.

ADDRESSSES

The Holy Father speaks first.
The Archbishop then addresses the gathering.

MAGNIFICAT

The Choir sings the Magnificat.
The Dean incenses the altar, the Holy Father and the Archbishop.

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaid. For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

BIDDING PRAYERS
(All kneel)

THE LORD’S PRAYER

All:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
now and for ever.
Amen.

PRAYERS AT SHRINE OF SAINT EDWARD

The Archbishop and the Holy Father place incense into a brazier and kneel. The choir sings: UBI CARITAS.

The Archbishop:

Lord God, ruler of heaven and earth,
in your mercy grant the increase of peace and justice in this our nation and in the community of nations.
Bless all who witness to the Gospel’s call in the public life of our countries;
and strengthen the Church’s vision
of your eternal kingdom,
so that we may with courage and persistence serve the common good,
and hold before all men and women
the challenge and the promise of your righteousness.
In the name of Jesus, our servant and our king.
Ré. Amen.

The Holy Father:

Lord,
hear the prayers of your people
and bring the hearts of believers together in your praise
and in common sorrow for their sins.
Heal all divisions among Christians that we may rejoice in the perfect unity of your Church
and move together as one
to eternal life in your kingdom.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son,
who lives and reigns with you

one God, for ever and ever.
Ré. Amen.

FIRST READING

He has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him his own blood.

A reader proclaims the first reading from the ambo.

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews. 9: 11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

This is the word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 115

R. The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ.

1. How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me? The cup of salvation I will raise: I will call on the Lord’s name. R.

2. O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful. Your servant, Lord, your servant am I; you have loosened my bonds. R.

3. A thanksgiving sacrifice I make: I will call on the Lord’s name. My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people. R.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia.

[R]. Alleluia.

Caro mea vere est cibus,
et sanguis meus vere est potus:
qui mandúcat meam carnem,
et bibit meum sánguinem,
in me manet, et ego in eo. Alleluia.

[R]. Alleluia.

The deacon who is to proclaim the gospel bows to the Holy Father.

In a low voice he asks his blessing:
Father, give me your blessing.

The Holy Father says in a low voice:

The Lord be in your heart and on your lips,
that you may worthily proclaim his holy Gospel.
In the name of the Father,
and of the Son, ✞ and of the Holy Spirit.

The deacon answers:

Amen.
GOSPEL

One of the soldiers pierced his side and there came out blood and water

The deacon greets the assembled faithful and announces the Gospel:

The Lord be with you.
\textit{R.} And also with you.

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint John.

19: 31-37

\textit{R.} Glory to you, O Lord.

The deacon incenses the book and proclaims the Gospel.

It was Preparation Day, and to prevent the bodies remaining on the cross during the sabbath – since that sabbath was a day of special solemnity – the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken away. Consequently the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with him and then of the other. When they came to Jesus, they found he was already dead, and so instead of breaking his legs one of the soldiers pierced his side with a lance; and immediately there came out blood and water. This is the evidence of one who saw it – trustworthy evidence, and he knows he speaks the truth – and he gives it so that you may believe as well. Because all this happened to fulfil the words of scripture: Not one bone of his will be broken; and again, in another place scripture says: They will look on the one whom they have pierced.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

While the choir and the assembly repeat the acclamation, the deacon carries the Book of the Gospels to the Holy Father, who kisses it and blesses the assembly with it.

HOMILY

The Holy Father preaches the homily.
A period of silence is observed after the homily.

The Holy Father gives the sign of peace to those around the altar.
AGNUS DEI

Then the following is sung:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: miserére nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: miserére nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: dona nobis pacem.

As the Agnus Dei is being sung, the Holy Father takes the host and breaks it over the paten.

He places a small piece in the chalice, saying inaudibly:

Hæc commíxtio Córporis et Ságuinis
Dómini nostri Iesu Christi
fiat accipiéntibus nobis in vitam ætérm.

Then the Holy Father joins his hands and says inaudibly:

Dómine Iesu Christe, Fíli Dei vivi,
qui ex voluntáte Patris,
cooperánte Spíritu Sancto,
per mortem tuam mundum vivificásti:
líbera me per hoc sacrosánctum Corpus et Ságuinum tuum
ab ómnibus iniquitátibus meis et univérsis malis:
et fac me tuis semper inhærére mandátis,
et a te numquam separári permíttas.
or:

Percéptio Córporis et Sánguinis tui,
Dómine Iesu Christe,
non mihi provéniat in iudícium.
et condemnatióinem:
sez pro tua pietáte prosit mihi
ad tutaméntum mentís et córporis,
et ad medélam percipiéndam.

COMMUNION

The Holy Father genuflects.

With host and chalice elevated, he faces the people and says aloud:

This is the Lamb of God
who takes away the sins of the world.
Happy are those
who are called to his supper.

He adds, with the people:

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Facing the altar, he says inaudibly:

Corpus Christi custódiat me in vitam ætérmam.

He consumes the body of Christ, then he takes the chalice and says inaudibly:

Sanguis Christi custódiat me in vitam ætérmam.
He drinks the blood of Christ.

The Holy Father administers Holy Communion. He takes a host for each one, raises it a little, and shows it, saying:

The body of Christ.

The communicant answers:

Amen.

and receives communion.

As all go to receive communion, appropriate hymns are sung by the choir and people.

After the distribution of communion, a moment of silent prayer follows.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The Holy Father, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray.

He extends his hands and prays:

Lord,

you renew us with the food and drink of salvation.

May the blood of our Saviour be for us a fountain of water springing up to eternal life.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

God of truth and love,
your Son, Jesus Christ,
stands as the light to all who seek you with a sincere heart.

and offer a witness of hope and peace to all.
We make our prayer

R. Amen.
READING

You are filled with the utter fullness of God

A reader proclaims the reading from the ambo.

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

3: 14-21

This is what I pray, kneeling before the Father, from whom every family, whether spiritual or natural, takes its name:

Out of his infinite glory, may he give you the power through his Spirit for your hidden self to grow strong, so that Christ may live in your hearts through faith, and then, planted in love and built on love, you will with all the saints have the strength to grasp the breadth and the length, the height and the depth; until, knowing the love of Christ, which is beyond all knowledge, you are filled with the utter fullness of God.

Glory be to him whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine; glory be to him from generation to generation in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

This is the word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM  Ps 119

רח. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.

1. They are happy whose life is blameless, who follow God’s law! They are happy who do his will, seeking him with all their hearts. לת.

2. I have sought you with all my heart: let me not stray from your commands. I treasure your promise in my heart lest I sin against you. לח.

3. I call with all my heart; answer me, O Lord, and I will obey your decrees. I call out to you: save me and I will keep your commands. לח.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia.

℟. Alleluia.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord. All who follow me will have the light of life.

℟. Alleluia.

The deacon who is to proclaim the gospel bows to the Holy Father.

In a low voice he asks his blessing: Father, give me your blessing.

The Holy Father says in a low voice:

The Lord be in your heart and on your lips, that you may worthily proclaim his holy Gospel. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, ✝ and of the Holy Spirit.

The deacon answers: Amen.
GOSPEL

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven

The deacon greets the assembled faithful and proclaims the Gospel:

The Lord be with you.
R. And also with you.

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

5: 1-12.14-16

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are the gentle: they shall have the earth for their inheritance.
Blessed are those who mourn: they shall be comforted.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.”
Blessed are the pure in heart: they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.
You are the light of the world. A city built on a hilltop cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Hymn: Be Still and Know that I am God.
Cardinal Newman’s Prayer: Radiating Christ

Dear Jesus,
help me to spread Thy fragrance everywhere I go.
Flood my soul with Thy spirit and life.
Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that all my life may only be a radiance of Thine.
Shine through me,
and be so in me that every soul
I come in contact with may feel Thy presence in my soul.
Let them look up and see no longer me
but only Jesus!
Stay with me,
and then I shall begin to shine
as Thou shinest,
so to shine as to be a light to others;
the light, O Jesus, will be all from Thee;
none of it will be mine;
it will be Thou shining on others through me.
Let me thus praise Thee
in the way Thou dost love best by shining on those around me.
Let me preach Thee without preaching,
not by words but by my example,
by the catching force of the sympathetic influence of what I do,
the evident fullness of the love
my heart bears to Thee.

̊Amen.

Hymn: Lead Kindly Light

Lead, kindly Light, amid th’encircling gloom, lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home;
lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see the distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path;
but now lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
pride ruled my will. Remember not past years!

So long Thy power hath blest me,
sure it still will lead me on.
O’er moor and fen, o’er crag and torrent,
till the night is gone,
and with the morn those angel faces smile,
which I have loved long since, and lost awhile!

Meantime, along the narrow rugged path,
thyself hast trod,
lead, Saviour, lead me home in childlike faith,
home to my God,
to rest forever after earthy strife
in the calm light of everlasting life.

TANTUM ERGO

All sing:

Tantum ergo Sacraméntum
Venerémur cérnuí:
Et antíquum documéntum
Novo cedat rítui:
Præstet fides supplémen tum Sénsum deféctui.

Laus et iubílatió,
Salus, honor, virtus quoque
Sit et benedícctio:

PRAYER

From his kneeler, the Holy Father sings:

Let us pray.
Lord our God,
in this great Sacrament
we come into the presence of Jesus Christ, your Son, born of the Virgin Mary and crucified for our salvation.
May we who declare our faith in this fountain of love and mercy drink from it the water of everlasting life.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

RITE OF BEATIFICATION

The Archbishop of Birmingham, the Most Reverend Bernard Longley, petitions the Holy Father that the Venerable John Henry Cardinal Newman be beatified:

Most Holy Father,
the Archbishop of Birmingham humbly requests
that the Venerable Servant of God
John Henry Newman
be proclaimed Blessed.

JOHN HENRY NEWMAN (1801-1890)

John Henry Newman was born in London in 1801. He was for over twenty years an Anglican clergyman and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. As a preacher, theologian and leader of the Oxford Movement, he was a prominent figure in the Church of England. His studies of the early Church drew him progressively towards full communion with the Catholic Church. With his companions he withdrew to a life of study and prayer at Littlemore outside Oxford where in 1845 Blessed Dominic Barberi, a Passionist priest, received him into the Catholic Church.

In 1847 he was himself ordained priest in Rome and, encouraged by Blessed Pope Pius IX, went on to found the Oratory of St Philip Neri in England. He was a prolific and influential writer on a variety of subjects, including the development of Christian doctrine, faith and reason, the true nature of conscience, and university education. In 1879 he was created Cardinal by Pope Leo XIII. Praised for his humility, his life of prayer, his unstinting care of souls and contributions to the intellectual life of the Church, he died in the Birmingham Oratory which he had founded on 11 August 1890.
FORMULA OF BEATIFICATION

The Holy Father:

Acceding to the request of our Brother Bernard Longley, Archbishop of Birmingham, of many other of our Brothers in the episcopate, and many of the faithful, after consultation with the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, by our apostolic authority we declare that the Venerable Servant of God Cardinal John Henry Newman, Priest of the Congregation of the Oratory, shall henceforth be invoked as Blessed and that his feast shall be celebrated every year on the ninth of October, in the places and according to the norms established by Church law.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

The portrait of the new Blessed is then unveiled and his relics are placed beside the altar.
Meanwhile the assembly raises a song of praise to the Lord:

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise,
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

The Archbishop of Birmingham thanks the Holy Father:

Most Holy Father,
I, the Ordinary of Birmingham give heartfelt thanks to your Holiness for having today proclaimed Blessed the Venerable Servant of God

The Archbishop, the Postulator and the Vice-Postulator receive the kiss of peace from the Holy Father.
GLORIA

The Gloria is sung by the choir and assembly:

Glory to God in the highest,
    and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
    we worship you, we give you thanks,
    we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
    have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
    receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
    Jesus Christ,
    with the Holy Spirit
    in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.
OPENING PRAYER

The Holy Father, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray.

He extends his hands and prays:

O God, who bestowed on the Priest Blessed John Henry Newman the grace to follow your kindly light and find peace in your Church; graciously grant that, through his intercession and example, we may be led out of shadows and images into the fulness of your truth.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

R. Amen.
FIRST READING

Against those who ‘buy up the poor for money’

A reader proclaims the first reading from the ambo.

A reading from the Prophet Amos. 8: 4-6

Listen to this, you who trample on the needy, and try to suppress the poor people of the country, you who say, “When will the new moon be over, so that we can sell our corn, and Sabbath, so that we can market our wheat? Then by lowering the bushel, raising the shekel, by swindling and tampering with the scales, we can buy up the poor for money, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and get a price for a pair of sandals, and get a price even for the sweepings of the wheat.”

The Lord swears it by the pride of Jacob, “Never will I forget a single thing you have done.”

This is the word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 115

R. Praise the Lord, who raises the poor.
Praise the Lord, who raises the poor.

Praise, O servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord! May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and for evermore! R.

High above all nations is the Lord, above the heavens his glory. Who is like the Lord, our God, who has risen on high to his throne yet stoops from the heights to look down, to look down upon heaven and earth? R.

From the dust he lifts up the lowly, from the dungheap he raises the poor to set them in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people. R.
SECOND READING

There should be prayers offered for everyone to God, who wants all to be saved

A reader proclaims the second reading from the ambo.

A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to Timothy.

2: 1-8

My advice is that, first of all, there should be prayers offered for everyone – petitions, intercessions and thanksgiving – and especially for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live religious and reverent lives in peace and quiet. To do this is right, and will please God our Saviour: he wants everyone to be saved and reach full knowledge of the truth. For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and mankind, himself a man, Christ Jesus, who sacrificed himself as a ransom for them all. He is the evidence of this, sent at the appointed time, and I have been named a herald and apostle of it and – I am telling the truth and no lie – a teacher of the faith and the truth to the pagans. In every place, then, I want the men to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

This is the word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia.

℟. Alleluia.

Your words are Spirit, your words are life. Lord Jesus Christ, only you have the words, the words of eternal life.

℟. Alleluia.

The deacon who is to proclaim the gospel bows to the Holy Father. In a low voice he asks his blessing:

Father, give me your blessing.

The Holy Father says in a low voice:

The Lord be in your heart and on your lips, that you may worthily proclaim his holy Gospel. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The deacon answers:

Amen.
GOSPEL

You cannot be the slave both of God and of money

The deacon greets the assembled faithful and announces the Gospel:

The Lord be with you.

R. And also with you.

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

16: 1-13

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

The deacon incenses the book and proclaims the gospel.

Jesus said to his disciples, ‘There was a rich man and he had a steward denounced to him for being wasteful with his property. He called for the man and said, “What is this I hear about you? Draw me up an account of your stewardship because you are not to be my steward any longer.” Then the steward said to himself, “Now that my master is taking the stewardship from me, what am I to do? Dig? I am not strong enough. Go begging? I should be too ashamed. Ah, I know what I will do to make sure that when I am dismissed from office there will be some to welcome me into their homes.”’
Then he called his master’s debtors one by one. To the first he said, “How much do you owe my master?” “One hundred measures of oil” was the reply. The steward said, “Here, take your bond; sit down straight away and write fifty”. To another he said, “And you, sir, how much do you owe?” “One hundred measures of wheat” was the reply. The steward said, “Here, take your bond and write eighty”. ‘The master praised the dishonest steward for his astuteness. For the children of this world are more astute in dealing with their own kind than are the children of light.”

‘And so I tell you this: use money, tainted as it is, to win you friends, and thus make sure that when it fails you, they will welcome you into the tents of eternity. The man who can be trusted in little things can be trusted in great; the man who is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in great. If then you cannot be trusted with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches? And if you cannot be trusted with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own?

“No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
While the choir and the assembly repeat the acclamation, the deacon carries the Book of the Gospels to the Holy Father, who kisses it and blesses the gathered assembly with it.

Be pleased to hear us.

R. Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

5. Let us pray for the gifts of wisdom and truth for theologians, artists and educators. In their response to the beauty of God may they help others to a deeper appreciation of the Gospel message.

Be pleased to hear us.

R. Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

6. On this Home Mission Sunday let us pray that our mission may be inspired by Blessed John Henry Newman. As we celebrate the recognition of holiness of one of our countrymen, may we seek the holiness that presents itself to us in everyday living.

Be pleased to hear us.

R. Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

The Holy Father:

Almighty God and Father,
we entrust ourselves to your care. In your mercy hear the prayers we bring to you and answer our petitions according to your will, through Christ our Lord.

RESP. Amen.
PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND THE GIFTS

During the presentation of the gifts, the choir and assembly sing. The Holy Father, standing at the altar, takes the paten with the bread and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, says inaudibly:

Benedíctus es, Dómine, Deus univérsi,
quia de tua largitáte accépimus panem,
quem tibi offérimus,
fructum terræ et óperis mánuum hóminum: ex quo nobis fíet panis vitæ.

The deacon pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying inaudibly:

Per huius aquæ et vini mystérium
eius efficiámur divinitátis consórtes,
qui humanitátis nostræ fíeri dignátus est párticeps.

Then the Holy Father takes the chalice, and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, says inaudibly:

Benedíctus es, Dómine, Deus univérsi,
quia de tua largitáte accépimus vinum,
quod tibi offérimus,
fructum vitis et óperis mánuum hóminum: ex quo nobis fíet potus spiritális.
Then he places the chalice on the corporal, bows and says inaudibly:

In spíritu humilitátis et in ánimo contríto suscipiáムur a te, Dómíne, et sic fiat sacrificiíum nostrum in conspéctu tuo hódie, ut pláceat tibi, Dómíne Deus.

The Holy Father incenses the offerings and the altar.

The deacon incenses the Holy Father and people.

Next the Holy Father stands at the side of the altar and washes his hands, saying inaudibly:

Lava me, Dómíne, ab iniquitáте mea, et a peccáто meo munda me.

Standing at the centre of the altar, facing the people, he extends and then joins his hands, saying:

Pray, brethren, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

Ré. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.
PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

The Holy Father, with hands extended, prays:

Lord,
may the gifts we bring to your altar in memory of Blessed John Henry Newman be acceptable to you.
Free us from the things that keep us from you and teach us to seek you as our only good.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER III

The Holy Father, with hands extended, alone says:

CP Vere Sanctus es, Dómine, et mérito te laudat
omnis a te cóndita creatúra,
quia per Fílium tuum,
Dóminum nostrum Iesum Christum, Spíritus Sancti operánte virtúte, vivíficas et sanctíficas univérsa,
et pópulum tibi congregáre non désinis,
ut a solis ortu usque ad occásum
oblátio munda offerátur nómini tuo.

He joins his hands.

With hands outstretched over the offerings, the Holy Father with concelebrants, says:

CC Súpplices ergo te, Dómine, deprecámur, ut hæc múnera,
quæ tibi sacránda detúlimus,
eódem Spíritu sanctificáre dignéris,

The Holy Father joins his hands and, making the sign of the cross over both bread and chalice, says:

ut Corpus et ✓ Sanguis fiant Fílii tui Dómini nostri Iesu Christi,
cuius mandáto hæc mystéria celebrámus.
He joins his hands.

Ipse enim in qua nocte tradebátur

The Holy Father takes the bread and, raising it a little above the altar, continues:

accépit panem
et tibi grátias agens benedíxit,
frégit, dedítque discípulis suis, dicens:

He bows slightly, as the concelebrants extend their right hands:

Accípite et manducáte ex hoc omnes:
hoc est enim Corpus meum,
quod pro vobis tradétur.

He shows the consecrated host to the people, places it on the paten, and genuflects in adoration.

Then he continues:

Símili modo, postquam cenátum est,

He takes the chalice, and, raising it a little above the altar, continues:

accípiens cálicem,
et tibi grátias agens benedíxit,
deditque discípulis suis, dicens:

He bows slightly, as the concelebrants extend their right hands:

Accípite et bíbite ex eo omnes:
hic est enim calix Sánguinis mei
novi et ætérni testaménti, qui pro vobis et pro multis effundétur in remissiónem peccatórum.

Hoc fácite in meam commemoratiónem.

He shows the chalice to the people, places it on the altar, and genuflects in adoration.

Then he sings:

The people with concelebrants:

We proclaim your death, O Lord,
and profess your resurrection,
until you come again.

Then, with hands extended, the Holy Father together with the concelebrants says:

CC Mémores ígitur, Dómine, eiúsdem Fílii tui salutíferæ passiónis necon mirábilis resurrectiónis et ascensiónis in cælum,
sed et præstolántes álterum eius advéntum,
offérimus tibi, grátias referéntes,
hoc sacrificium vivum et sanctum.
Réspice, quæsumus, in oblatiónem Ecclésiæ tuæ
et, agnóscens Hóstiam,

concéde, ut qui Córpore
et Sánguine Fílii tui refícimur, Spíritu eius Sancto repléti, unum corpus et unus spíritus
inveniámur in Christo.

He joins his hands.

With hands extended, a concelebrant says:

1C  Ipse nos tibi perfíciat munus ætérnum, ut cum eléctis tuis
hereditátem cónsequi valeámus,
in primis cum beatíssima Vírgine, Dei Genetríce, María,
cum beátis Apóstolis tuis et gloriósis Martýribus,
cum Beato Ioánne Henríco
et ómnibus Sanctis, quorum intercessióne
perpétuo apud te confídimus adiuvári.

He joins his hands.

Another concelebrant, with hands extended, says:

2C  Hæc Hóstia nostræ reconciliatiónis profíciat, quæsumus, Dómine,
ad totíus mundi pacem atque salútem.
Ecclésiam tuam, peregrinántem in terra,

Omnes fílios tuos ubíque dispérsos

Fratres nostros defúnctos, et omnes qui, tibi placéntes,
ex hoc saéculo transiérunt,
in regnum tuum benígnus admítte, ubi fore sperámus,
ut simul glória tua perénniter satiémur,

He joins his hands.

per Christum Dóminum nostrum, per quem mundo bona cuncta largíris.

The Holy Father takes the paten with the host and the deacon takes the chalice, lifting them up. Together with the concelebrants, the Holy Father sings:

Per ip-sum, et cum ip-so, et in ipso, est ti-bi De-o Pater omnipotens, in unitate Spiritus Sancti, omnis honor et gloria per omnia saecula saecula.

R. Amen.
COMMUNION RITE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

The Holy Father places the chalice and paten on the altar and, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray with confidence to the Father, in the words our Saviour gave us:

The congregation:

Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

With hands extended, the Holy Father continues alone:

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day. In your mercy keep us free from sin and protect us from all anxiety as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

He joins his hands.

The people end the prayer with the acclamation:

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

SIGN OF PEACE

Then the Holy Father, with hands extended, says aloud:

Lord Jesus Christ,
you said to your apostles:
I leave you peace, my peace I give you.
Look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom where you live for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

The Holy Father, extending and joining his hands, adds:

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

R. And also with you.

Then the deacon adds:

Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

The Holy Father gives the sign of peace to those around the altar.
AGNUS DEI

Then the following is sung:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

As the Agnus Dei is being sung, the Holy Father takes the host and breaks it over the paten.

He places a small piece in the chalice, saying inaudibly:

Hæc commíxtio Córporis et Sánguinis Dómini nostri Iesu Christi fiat accipiéntibus nobis in vitam æternam.

Then the Holy Father joins his hands and says inaudibly:

Dómine Iesu Christe, Fíli Dei vivi, qui ex voluntáte Patris, cooperánte Spíritu Sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificásti: líbera me per hoc sacrosánctum Corpus et Sánguinem tuum ab ómnibus iniquitátibus meis et univérsis malis: et fac me tuis semper inhærére mandátis, et a te numquam separári permíttas.
or:

Percéptio Córporis et Ságuinis tui, Dómine Iesu Christe, non mihi provéniat in iudícium et condemnatiónum: sed pro tua pietáte prosit mihi ad tutaméntum mentís et córporis, et ad medélam percipiéndam.

COMMUNION

The Holy Father genuflects.

With host and chalice elevated, he, facing the people, says aloud:

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to his supper.

He adds, with the people:

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Facing the altar, he says inaudibly:

Corpus Christi custódiat me in vitam æternam.

He consumes the body of Christ, then he takes the chalice and says inaudibly:

Sanguis Christi custódiat me in vitam ætérnam.
He drinks the blood of Christ.

The Holy Father administers Holy Communion. He takes a host for each one, raises it a little, and shows it, saying:

The body of Christ.

The communicant answers:

Amen.

and receives communion.

As all go to receive communion, appropriate hymns are sung by the choir and people.

After the distribution of communion, a moment of silent prayer follows.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The Holy Father, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray.

He extends his hands and prays:

by the power of this sacrament and the example of Blessed John Henry Newman, guide us always in your love.

May the good work you have begun in us reach perfection in the day of Christ Jesus, who is Lord for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

PRAYERS

OUR FATHER

The Holy Father:

Let us pray with confidence to the Father in the words our Saviour gave us:

or:

Jesus taught us to call God our Father, and so we have the courage to say:

All:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.
HAIL MARY

Hail Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee:
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.
The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

Hail Mary...
\textit{R.} Holy Mary...

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

of the promises of Christ.
The Holy Father:

Let us pray.

Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by his passion and cross be brought to the glory of his resurrection. Through Christ our Lord.

Ré. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to Holy Spirit.

Ré. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
