Holy Father's condolences for the victims of the fire in Grenfell Tower, London (United Kingdom)

The following is the telegram of condolences for the victims of the fire that broke out in recent days in Grenfell Tower, London (United Kingdom), sent by Cardinal Secretary of State Pietro Parolin, on behalf of the Holy Father, to Cardinal Vincent Nichols, archbishop of Westminster:

Telegram

His Eminence Cardinal Vincent Nichols
Archbishop of Westminster

His Holiness Pope Francis was saddened to learn of the devastating fire in London and of the tragic loss of life and injury. He entrusts the souls of those who have died to the Lord's loving mercy and offers his heartfelt condolences to their families. With appreciation for the brave efforts of the emergency service personnel and all committed to supporting those who have lost their homes, His Holiness invokes upon the local community God's blessings of strength and peace.

Cardinal Pietro Parolin
Secretary of State
