The Holy Father's condolences for flood victims in Jordan

The following is the telegram of condolences for the victims of the floods caused by heavy rains Jordan yesterday, sent by Cardinal Secretary of State Pietro Parolin on behalf of the Holy Father Francis to the apostolic nuncio in Jordan, H.E. Msgr. Martín Alberto Ortega:

Telegram

Deeply saddened to learn of the tragic loss of life and the injury caused by the serious floods following heavy rains in Jordan, His Holiness Pope Francis expresses heartfelt solidarity with all those affected by this natural disaster. In a particular way, he prays for the young people whose lives were lost, the healing of those injured and the consolation of all who grieve. While offering encouragement to the civil authorities and those involved in the search and rescue efforts, His Holiness willingly invokes upon all the divine gifts of strength and peace.

Cardinal Pietro Parolin
Secretary of State
