Press Release of the Office of the Promoter of Justice of Vatican City State

On 13 January 2021, the Investigating Judge of the Tribunal of the Vatican City State, accepting the request made by the Office of the Promoter of Justice, revoked the precautionary measure previously ordered against Ms Cecilia Marogna, against whom a trial for alleged embezzlement committed in conspiracy with others is about to take place.

The initiative aims, among other things, to allow the defendant - who has already refused to defend herself by refusing to be questioned by the Italian judicial authorities, requested by rogatory means by the Promoter of Justice - to attend the trial in the Vatican free from the pending precautionary measure against her.
