Video Message of the Holy Father to the participants in the Sixth World Meeting of the Young People of Scholas – World ORT

The following is the text of the video message sent by the Holy Father Francis for the conclusion of the Sixth World Meeting of the Young People of Scholas – World ORT “Life in movement”, which took place from 23 to 26 October in São Paulo, Brazil:

Video Message of the Holy Father

I would like to thank the ORT authorities for the work they are doing. A work of reflection and also of testimony, with three key words: movement, gratuitousness and encounter. For an encounter to be human and non-commercial, it has to be free of charge. And for there to be an encounter, there must be movement. So, as you can see, these three words indicate something very human.

I am grateful to the authorities of the ORT schools that work with Scholas; it is an idea that has not yet reached its full potential, and it has been going on for a long time. It is something very important for the future. And I would also like to thank the Brazilian authorities for allowing or helping this kind of thing. Thank you very much, God bless you.
