Arrival

At the door of the church, the senior member of the collegiate chapter offers the Holy Father a crucifix to be kissed, then the archpriest hands a sprinkler of holy water. The Holy Father sprinkles himself and those present.

Then he moves towards the main altar where he kneels for a moment in adoration. The Holy Father proceeds to the grotto. Meanwhile the choir sings appropriate hymns.

The Holy Father and those present, make the sign of the cross. The Holy Father says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R/. Amen.

Then the Holy Father extends his hands and greets all present:

Peace be with you.

R/. And also with you.
Prayer

The Holy Father introduces this short moment of prayer.

Dear brothers and sisters, we are gathered in this grotto, a dear place to you, the christian community of these islands, because it is considered as the first church and the cradle of christianity in Malta, for, according to an ancient tradition, Saint Paul lived in it. Let us pray to God, our Father, so that, through word and deed, we keep unblemished the teaching transmitted to us by the apostle.
A brief moment of silence. Then the Holy Father continues:

O God, in your providence, you have willed that the Apostle Saint Paul should see shipwreck on our shores and stay amongst us to preach the faith.

Through his intercession we earnestly pray to preserve a deep faith, a steadfast hope and a burning love for Christ and the Church. May we become apostles serving the Church with a pure heart, witnesses to her truth and beauty, especially among neighbouring countries. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

R/. Amen.

The Holy Father meets the members of the Collegiate Chapter and signs the Visitors’ Book. Then he proceeds towards the church parvis. Meanwhile the choir sings appropriate hymns.
Welcome

Monsignor Paul Cremona, O.P., Archbishop of Malta and President of the Maltese Episcopal Conference greets the Holy Father. The gathering welcomes the Holy Father singing:

Salve Papa noster
Salve Petra fidei
Salve cæli janitor
Et Dominus sit tecum.

Address

The Holy Father addresses the gathering from his seat.

Final Blessing

The Holy Father extends his hands and says:

The Lord be with you.

R/. And also with you.
May the God of all consolation bless you in every way, and grant you peace all the days of your life.
R/. Amen.

May he give you the power of the Holy Spirit to be witnesses to Christ his beloved Son.
R/. Amen.

May he enrich you with his gifts of faith, hope, and love, so that what you do in this life will bring you to the happiness of everlasting life.
R/. Amen.

May Almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
R/. Amen.

The choir ends the celebration with an appropriate hymn.

R/. And also with you.
Introduction to the Celebration

The Holy Father introduces the celebration:

Dear brothers and sisters
Peace be with you.
We are gathered today around the altar in the name of Jesus Christ to remember the great things which God the Father has done for us through the Holy Spirit when, as was decreed
by Divine Providence, his zealous servant Paul of Tarsus was shipwrecked on the shores of these islands and, warmly greeted by your forefathers, thus becoming your apostle and father in faith.

Peace be with you
my dearly beloved Maltese people!
The faith which your apostle Paul communicated to you,
was in turn handed over from generation to generation and today is still witnessed to faithfully by the great majority of the population of these islands.

Penitential Act

The Holy Father pronounces the invitation to the penitential act:

As we begin this sacred liturgy let our minds be illumined with Christ’s marvellous light which casts out the darkness of sin, and let us leave him to clothe us in holiness and love.
After a brief moment of silence:

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have sinned through my own fault in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do. And I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The penitential act concludes with the absolution:

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R/. Amen.

English version

As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to make the lifeboat secure. When the men had hoisted it aboard, they passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Fearing that they would run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along. We took such a violent battering from the storm that the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard. On the third day, they threw the ship’s tackle overboard with their own hands. When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said: “Men, you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete; then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss. But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed. Last night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve stood beside me and said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.’ So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me. Nevertheless, we must run aground on some island.”
On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic Sea, when about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land. They took soundings and found that the water was a hundred and twenty feet deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was ninety feet deep. Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight. In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower some anchors from the bow. Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved.” So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it fall away.

Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. “For the last fourteen days,” he said, “you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food – you haven’t eaten anything. Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head.” After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat. They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves. Altogether there were 276 of us on board. When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.
When daylight came, they did not recognize the land, but they saw a bay with a sandy beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could. Cutting loose the anchors, they left them in the sea and at the same time untied the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. But the ship struck a sandbar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was broken to pieces by the pounding of the surf.

The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping. But the centurion wanted to spare Paul’s life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. The rest were to get there on planks or on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land in safety.

Once safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta. The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold. Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and, as he put it on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand. When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to each other, “This man must be a murderer; for though he escaped from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live.” But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects. The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead, but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

There was an estate nearby that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us to his home and for three days entertained us hospitably. His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him and, after prayer, placed his hands on him and healed him. When this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured. They honored us in many ways and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men.
Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of his works with songs of joy. R/.

Others went out on the sea in ships;
they were merchants on the mighty waters.
They saw the works of the Lord,
his wonderful deeds in the deep. R/.

For he spoke and stirred up a tempest that lifted high the waves.
They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths;
in their peril their courage melted away. R/.

They reeled and staggered like drunken men;
they were at their wits’ end.
Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper;
the waves of the sea were hushed. R/.

They were glad when it grew calm,
and he guided them to their desired haven.
Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men. R/.
Second Reading

Rev 5, 11-14

Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth.

A reader proclaims the second reading from the ambo.

Qari mill-Ktieb tal-Apokalissi ta’ San Ġwann Appostlu.

Jiena, Ġwanni, ħarist, u minn madwar it-tron u l-Hlejjaq Hajjin u x-Xjuħ smajt il-lehen ta’ ħafna angli, li l-ġhadd tagħhom kien għaxriet ta’ eluf, u eluf ta’ eluf, jghidu b’lehen qawwi:

U fis-sema, fuq l-art, taħt l-art, u fil-bahar u l-ħlejjaq kollha li fihom, smajthom jghidu:
“Lil dak li qieghed fuq it-tron u lill-Haruf, jinghata t-tifhir u l-gieh u l-glorja u l-ḥakma, ghal dejjem ta’ dejjem.”

At the end of the reading the reader sings:

Il-Kelma tal-Mulej.

and all respond with the acclamation:

English version

I, John, looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders. In a loud voice they sang:

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!”

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, singing:

“To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!”

The four living creatures said, “Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshipped.
Gospel Acclamation

The Gospel acclamation is sung. The deacon who is to proclaim the Gospel reading makes a deep bow before the Holy Father and asks for a blessing, saying quietly, Iube, Domne, benedicere. The Holy Father blesses him with the words Dominus sit in corde tuo et in labiis tuis. The deacon signs himself with the sign of the cross and replies, Amen. The deacon goes to the altar, where he is joined by the censerbearer and by the acolytes. After bowing to the altar, the deacon reverently takes the Book of the Gospels and, carries the book with solemnity to the ambo.

The deacon greets the assembled faithful and announces the Gospel.

At the end of the reading the deacon sings:

Il-Kelma tal-Mulej.

and all respond with the acclamation:

Tifhir lilek Kristu.

The deacon carries the Book of the Gospels to the Holy Father, who kisses it and blesses the gathered assembly with it. The choir and assembly sings again Hallelujah.
In those days, Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Tiberias. It happened this way: Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. “I’m going out to fish,” Simon Peter told them, and they said, “We’ll go with you.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?” “No,” they answered. He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.” When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, “It is the Lord,” he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.

When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you have just caught.” Simon Peter climbed aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?” “Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.” Again Jesus said, “Simon son of John, do you truly love me?” He answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.” The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?” He said, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my sheep. I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me!”
Homily

The Holy Father gives the homily.

A period of silence is observed after the homily.

Profession of Faith

His Lordship Mgr Mario Grech, bishop of Gozo, introduces the profession of faith.

Għadna kemm smajna l-Kelma ta’ Alla u l-kliem mimli ħegġa tas-Suċċessur ta’ Pietru li ġie fostna biex isahħahna fil-fidi li ġabilna l-Appostlu Missierna San Pawl.

Illum f’dan iċ-ċentinarju ghandna quddiemna l-eżempju mill-aqwa tal-ewwel insara Maltin li laqgħu bil-qalb il-bxara t-tajba mħabbra minn San Pawl u għexuha fil-prattika.

Imiss lilna, li bħalhom, nistqarru l-fidi mhux bil-kliem biss, iżda bl-ġhemil u tassew.
We have just listened to the Word of God and heard the impassioned exhortation of the successor of Peter who has come among us to confirm us in the faith which the Apostle Paul gave us.

On the occasion of these centenary celebrations we remember the extraordinary example of the first Maltese Christians who listened to, pondered upon, accepted and put in practice the good news transmitted by St Paul.

It is up to us to follow in their footsteps and profess our faith, not only by word, but above all in the way we live.
The Holy Father:

Jiena nemmen f’Alla wiehed,

Ji-na nem-men fal-la wi-het

All:

il-Missier li jista’ kollox,
li ħalaq is-sema u l-art,
dak kollu li jidher u dak li ma jidhirx.

U f’Mulej wieħed Ġesù Kristu Sidna, Iben waħdieni ta’ Alla, imnissel mill-Missier qabel kull żmien.
Alla minn Alla, dawl minn dawl, Alla veru minn Alla veru, imnissel mhux magħmul,
natura wahda mal-Missier:
u bih sar kollox.
Niżel mis-smewwiet għalina l-bnedmin u għall-fidwa tagħna.

U ħa l-ġisem bis-setgħa tal-Ispirtu s-Santu minn Marija Vergni u sar bniedem.
Sallbuh għalina, bata taħt Ponzju Pilatu, miet u difnuh,
 u fit-tielet jum qam minn bejn l-imwiet,
skont il-Kotba mqaddsa,
 u tela’ s-sema,
 u qieghed fuq il-lemin tal-Missier.
 U ghandu jerga’ jiği bil-glorja biex jagħmel haqq mill-ħajjin u mill-mjejtin,
 u s-saltna tiegħu ma jkollhiex tmiem.

U fl-Ispirtu s-Santu, Mulej li jagħti l-ħajja:
li ġej mill-Missier u mill-Iben;
li hu meqjum u mweġgah flimkien mal-Missier u mal-Iben:
hu li tkellem b’fomm il-profeti.

U fi Knisja waħda, qaddisa, kattolika, appostolika.
Nistqarr magħmudija waħda għall-mahfra tad-dnubiet.
U nistenna l-qawma mill-imwiet,
 u l-ħajja taż-żmien li ġej. Ammen.

Preparation of the Altar and the Gifts

At the end of the general intercessions, the Holy Father sits and puts on the miter. The song for the presentation of gifts is sung. The deacons and acolytes arrange the purificator, chalice and the Missal on the altar. The gifts are then brought forward. The Holy Father receives the gifts of the faithful. The bread and wine are brought by the deacons to the altar.

The Holy Father goes to the altar, receives the paten with the bread from the deacon, and holding the paten in both hands a little above the altar, says inaudibly:

Benedictus es, Domine, Deus universi, quia de tua largitate accepimus panem, quem tibi offerimus, fructum terræ et operis manuum hominum: ex quo nobis fiet panis vitæ.

Then the Holy Father places the paten with the bread on the corporal.
Meanwhile, the deacon pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying inaudibly:

Per huius aquæ et vini mysterium, eius efficiamur divinitatis consortes, qui humanitatis nostræ fieri dignatus est particeps.

The deacon hands the chalice to the Holy Father, who holds it with both hands a little above the altar, saying inaudibly:

Benedictus es, Domine, Deus universi quia de tua largitate accepimus vinum, quod tibi offerimus, fructum vitis et operis manuum hominum, ex quo nobis fiet potus spiritualis.

The Holy Father places the chalice on the corporal.
Then, bowing at the center of the altar, the Holy Father says inaudibly:

In spiritu humilitatis et in animo contrito suscipiamur a te, Domine; et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.

The Holy Father incenses the gifts, as well as the altar and the cross. After this, a deacon, standing at the side of the altar, incenses the Holy Father, then the concelebrants, then the people.

The Holy Father stands at the side of the altar and washes his hands, saying inaudibly:

Lava me, Domine, ab iniquitate mea, et a peccato meo munda me.

Standing at the centre of the altar, he extends and then joins his hands, saying:

Pray, brethren, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.
The people answer:

May the Lord
accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good,
and the good of all his Church.

Prayer over Gifts

The Holy Father, with hands outstretched says the prayer over the gifts:

Lord,
receive these gifts from your Church.
May the great joy you give us come to perfection in heaven.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

The people respond with the acclamation:

Amen.
The Holy Father’s skullcap is handed to a minister. The concelebrants come near the altar and the Holy Father begins the eucharistic prayer with the preface:

Prex Eucharistica I

The Holy Father, with hands extended, alone says:

Te igitur clementissime Pater,
per Iesum Christum, Filium tuum, Dominum nostrum, supplices rogamus ac petimus,

The Holy Father joins his hands and says:

uti accepta habeas,

The Holy Father makes the sign of the cross over both bread and chalice and says:

et benedicas hæc ✝ dona, hæc munera,
hæc sancta sacrificia illibata,

With hands extended, he continues:

in primis quæ tibi offerimus
pro Ecclesia tua sancta Catholica; quam pacificare, custodire, adunare, et regere digneris toto orbe terrarum:
una cum me indigno famulo tuo quam Ecclesiæ tuæ præesse voluisti, cum Episcopo huius Ecclesiæ Paulo, et omnibus orthodoxis atque catholicæ et apostolicæ fidei cultoribus.
A concelebrant, with hands extended, alone says:

Memento, Domine, famulorum famularumque tuarum

He prays for them briefly with hands joined. Then, with hands extended, he continues:

et omnium circumstantium, quorum tibi fides cognita est et nota devotio, pro quibus tibi offerimus: vel qui tibi offerunt hoc sacrificium laudis, pro se suisque omnibus: pro redemptione animarum suarum, pro spe salutis et incolumitatis suæ: tibique reddunt vota sua æterno Deo, vivo et vero.

Another concelebrant, with hands extended, alone says:

Communicantes, et memoriam venerantes, in primis gloriosæ semper Virginis Mariæ, Genitricis Dei et Domini nostri Iesu Christi:
sed et beati Ioseph,
eiusdem Virginis Sponsi, et beatorum Apostolorum
ac Martyrum tuorum,
Petri et Pauli, Andreæ, Iacobi, Ioannis,
Thomæ, Iacobi, Philippi,
Bartholomæi, Matthæi, Simonis et Thaddæi:
Lini, Cleti, Clementis, Xysti,
Cornelii, Cypriani, Laurentii, Chrysogoni,
Ioannis et Pauli, Cosmæ et Damiani,
et omnium sanctorum tuorum:
quorum meritis precibusque concedas, ut in omnibus protectionis tuæ muniamur auxilio.
With hands extended, the Holy Father continues alone:

_Hanc igitur oblationem servitutis nostræ, sed et cunctæ familiæ tuæ, quæsumus, Domine, ut placatus accipias: diesque nostros in tua pace disponas, atque ab æterna damnatione nos eripi et in electorum tuorum iubeas grege numerari_.

He joins his hands.

With hands outstretched over the offerings, the Holy Father together with concelebrants says:

_Quam oblationem tu, Deus, in omnibus, quæsumus, benedictam, adscriptam, ratam, rationabilem, acceptabilemque facere digneris: ut nobis Corpus et Sanguis fiat dilectissimi Filii tui, Domini nostri Iesu Christi_.

He joins his hands.
Qui pridie quam pateretur,

He takes the bread and, raising it a little above the altar, continues:

accept panem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas:

He looks upward.

et elevatis oculis in cælum
ad te Deum Patrem
suum omnipotentem,
tibi gratias agens benedixit,
fregit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens:

He bows slightly, as the concelebrants extend their right hands:

Accípite et manducate ex hoc omnes:
Hoc est enim Corpus meum, quod pro vobis tradetur.

The Holy Father shows the consecrated host to the people, places it on the paten and genuflects in adoration.
Then he continues:

_Simili modo, postquam cenatum est,_

The Holy Father takes the chalice, and, raising it a little above the altar, continues:

_accipiens et hunc præclarum calicem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas:_
_item tibi gratias agens benedixit,_ _deditque discipulis suis, dicens:_

He bows slightly, as the concelebrants extend their right hands:

_Accípite et bíbite ex eo omnes:_
_Hic est enim calix Sánquinis mei novi et æterni testamenti,_ _qui pro vobis et pro multis effundétur in remissionem peccatórum._
_Hoc fácite in meam commemorationém._

He shows the chalice to the people and genuflects in adoration.
The Holy Father sings:

Mysterium fidei

Mysterium fidei

Dan hu l-misteru tal-fidi
Dan u il misteru tal fidi

The people with concelebrants sing:

Hu l-Mulej, hu l-Mulej.
Huwa qam minn bejn l-imwiet ghax hu l-Mulej.
Kull irkoppa tmil, kull ilsien jistqarr.
Çesù, hu l-Mulej.

Then with hands extended, the Holy Father together with the concelebrants says:

Unde et memores, Domine,
nos servi tui, sed et plebs tua sancta,
eiusdem Christi, Filii tui, Domini nostri,
tam beatæ passionis,
necnon et ab inferis resurrectionis,
sed et in cælos gloriosæ ascensionis:
offerimus præclaræ maiestati tuæ de tuis donis ac datis hostiam puram,
hostiam sanctam,
hostiam immaculatam,
Panem sanctum vitæ æternæ, et Calicem salutis perpetuæ.

Supra quæ propitio ac sereno vultu
respicere digneris:
et accepta habere,
sicuti accepta habere dignatus es munera pueri tui iusti Abel, et sacrificium patriarchæ nostri Abrahæ:
et quod tibi obtulit
summus sacerdos tuus Melchisedech, sanctum sacrificium,
immaculatam hostiam.
Bowing with hands joined,
the Holy Father and concelebrants continue:

Supplices te rogamus, omnipotens Deus:
iube hæc perferri per manus sancti Angeli tui in sublime altare tuum, in conspectu divinæ maiestatis tuæ:
ut, quotquot ex hac altaris participatione sacrosanctum Filii tui Corpus et Sanguinem sumpserimus,

The Holy Father and the concelebrants stand up straight and make the sign of the cross, saying:

omni benedictione cælesti et gratia repleamur.

He joins his hands.

With hands extended, another concelebrant says:

Memento etiam, Domine, famulorum famularumque tuarum qui nos præcesserunt cum signo fidei, et dormiunt in somno pacis.

He prays for them briefly with joined hands.
Then, with hands extended, he continues:

Ipsis Domine, et omnibus in Christo quiescentibus, locum refrigerii, lucis et pacis, ut indulgeas, deprecamur.

He joins his hands.

Another concelebrant strikes his breast with the right hand, saying:

Nobis quoque peccatoribus famulis tuis, With hands extended as before, he continues:

de multitudine miseratium tuarum sperantibus, partem aliquam et societatem donare digneris, cum tuis sanctis Apostolis et Martyribus: cum Ioanne, Stephano, Matthia, Barnaba, Ignatio, Alexandro, Marcellino, Petro, Felicite, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucia, Agnete, Cæcilia, Anastasia, et omnibus sanctis tuis:
intra quorum nos consortium,
non æstimator meriti, sed veniæ, quæsumus, largitor admitte.

The Holy Father continues alone:

Per Christum Dominum nostrum,
per quem hæc omnia, Domine,
semper bona creas,
sanctificas, vivificas, benedicis,*
et præstas nobis.*
He takes the paten with the host and the deacon takes the chalice, lifting them up. Together with the concelebrants, the Holy Father sings:

Per ipsum, et cum ipso, et in ipso,
est tibi Deo Patri omnipotenti, in unitate

Spírítus Sancti, omnis honor et glória per omnia sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

Per ipsum, et cum ipso, et in ipso, est tibi Deo Patri omnipotenti, in unitate Spiritus Sancti, omnis honor et glória per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

The people sing the acclamation:

The Lord’s Prayer

The Holy Father, with hands joined, introduces the Lord’s Prayer:

Præceptis salutaribus moniti, et divina institutione formati, audemus dicere:
And all sing:

Pan em nostrum co-ti-di-an-um da no-bis ho-di-e;

et dimit-ter nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos di-mit-ti-mus de-bi-to-ri-bus nos tris; et ne nos in-du-cas in ten-ta-ti-o-nem; sed libera nos a ma-lo.
Pater noster, qui es in cælis: sanctificetur nomen tuum; adveniat regnum tuum; fiat voluntas tua, sicut in cælo, et in terra. Panem nostrum cotidianum da nobis hodie; et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris; et ne nos inducas in tentationem; sed libera nos a malo.

With hands outstretched, the Holy Father says:

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day. In your mercy keep us free from sin and protect us from all anxiety as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

He joins hands.
The concelebrating presbyters, together with the people, conclude it with the acclamation:

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

Sign of Peace

Then the Holy Father, with hands extended, says:

Lord Jesus Christ,
you said to your apostles:
I leave you peace, my peace I give you.
Look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and grant us the peace and unity
of your kingdom

He joins his hands.

where you live for ever and ever.

\(\text{R. Amen.}\)
The Holy Father, extending and joining his hands, adds:

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

_Æ._ And also with you.

The Holy Father gives the sign of peace to those around the altar. All exchange a sign a peace and charity.
Agnus Dei

Choir:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Assembly:

As the Agnus Dei is being sung, the Holy Father takes the host and breaks it over the paten.

The Holy Father places a small piece in the chalice, saying inaudibly:

Hæc commixtio Corporis et Sanguinis Domini nostri Iesu Christi fiat accipientibus nobis in vitam æternam.
Then the Holy Father joins his hands and says inaudibly:

Domine Iesu Christe, Fili Dei vivi, qui ex voluntate Patris, cooperante Spiritu Sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificasti: libera me per hoc sacrosanctum Corpus et Sanguinem tuum ab omnibus iniquitatibus meis et universis malis: et fac me tuis semper inhærere mandatis, et a te numquam separari permittas.

or:

Percectio Corporis et Sanguinis tui, Domine Jesu Christe, non mihi proveniat in iudicium et condemnationem: sed pro tua pietate prosit mihi ad tutamentum mentis et corporis, et ad medelam percipiendum.
Communion

The Holy Father genuflects. With host and chalice elevated, he says aloud:

Ecce Agnus Dei,
ecce qui tollit peccata mundi.
Beati qui ad cenam Agni vocati sunt.

He adds inaudibly:

Domine, non sum dignus,
ut intres sub tectum meum,
sed tantum dic verbo et sanabitur anima mea.

At the same moment the congregation sings:

Ma jisthoqqlix Mulejja,
li tiği ghandi llum;
iżda ghid biss Kelma waḥda
u ruḥi tfiq u tqum.
The Holy Father says inaudibly:

Corpus Christi

He consumes the body of Christ, then he takes the chalice and says inaudibly:

Sanguinis Christi

custodiat me in vitam æternam.

The Holy Father administers Holy Communion to a few members of the liturgical assembly. He takes a host for each one, raises it a little, and shows it, saying:

The body of Christ.

The communicant answers:

Amen.

As all go to receive communion, appropriate hymns are sung by the choir and people.

The Holy Father, with hands extended, prays:

Let us pray.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

Then the Holy Father, facing the people, extends his hands and greets all present:

Peace be with you.

R. And also with you.
Welcome

Monsignor Mario Grech, Bishop of Gozo greets the Holy Father.

Opening Prayer

The Holy Father introduces this youth meeting.

My dear young brothers and sisters, how good it is to be here with you! The same God who was communicated to your forefathers by St Paul, is present among you and is eager to fill you with his love. Let us open our hearts to him now as we begin our prayer in his name:
Most loving God, we offer to you the gifts and needs of youth.
Bless them with your guiding grace as they face the challenges and opportunities in their lives.
Touch their hearts
with the gentleness of your love, that they may know they are valued and valuable beings.
Send your spirit of hope to their lives,
that they may believe in themselves and know they are needed in this world.
Grace them with the gift of joy that they may celebrate life through laughter and tears alike.

Guide us,
as we continue to grow in appreciation of the many gifts of young people, in the ministry opportunities
we offer to them,
in the journey of faith
we walk with them,
in our shared mission
as a community called to discipleship in the world.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

R/. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

The Book of the Gospels is carried forward by the deacon.
Meanwhile, a suitable song is sung.
Gospel

Mk 10, 17-27

Come, follow me!

The deacon greets the assembled faithful and announces the Gospel.

Il-Mulej magħkom.

R/. Glorja lilek, Mulej.

F’dak iż-żmien, Ġesù kien se jaqbad it-triq, meta mar fuqu wieħed jghaggel, niżel gharkupptejh quddiemu u qallu: “Mgħallem tajjeb, x’ghandi nagħmel biex nikseb il-ħajja ta’ dejjem?” “Ħaliex qieghed issejjahli ‘tajjeb’?” qallu Ġesù, “hadd ma hu tajjeb ħlief Alla biss. At the end of the reading the deacon sings:

Il-Kelma tal-Mulej.

and all respond with the acclamation:

Tifħir lilek Kristu.

English version

In those days Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. “Good teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good—except God alone. You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.’” “Teacher,” he declared, “all these I have kept since I was a boy.” Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.” At this the man’s face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.
Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!” The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, “Who then can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God.”

Witness

Four young people enter the stage and as a group read a text containing a testimony of faith in the life of a youth.

Address

The Holy Father addresses the gathering from his seat.
Prayers of Intercession

After a moment of silence the Holy Father says:

With confidence in the Lord’s loving kindness, we ask him to accept our prayers:

Then five youth present the following prayers:

R/. Ismagħna nitolbuk, Mulej.

English version

For Pope Benedict XVI, who two days ago celebrated his birthday and tomorrow will be celebrating the fifth anniversary of his election as the successor of Peter, and for his brother bishops. May their hearts be enflamed with the courage to preach the Gospel by their words and the witness of their lives. Let us pray.

R/. Lord, graciously hear us.
For all young people who yearn to know the Lord’s will for their life. May they be filled with hope and trust in his generosity, for he never abandons those who seek him. Let us pray.

R/. Lord, graciously hear us.

R/. Ismagħna nitolbuk, Mulej.

English version

For young athletes, that in striving for ever greater perfection through physical activity and competition, they may always act in a spirit of friendship, offering an example to be imitated by their peers. Let us pray.

R/. Lord, graciously hear us.
For young engaged and married couples, that they may come to know in their life together the height and depth and breath of Christ’s love and the fullness of his life. Let us pray.

R. Lord, graciously hear us.
For all youth, victims of all forms of abuse. Strengthen them and transform their weakness, and be for them the light that brightens their darkness. Let us pray.

R/. Lord, graciously hear us.
The Lord’s Prayer

With hands joined, the Holy Father, says:

Let us now together sing those words which the Lord gave us as the pattern of all prayer:

All:

Missierna, li inti fis-smewwiet: jitqaddes ismek; tği saltinatek: ikun li trid int, kif fis-sema, hekkda fl-art.

Hobżna ta’ kuljum aghtina llum; ahfrilna dnubietna, bhalma nahfru lil min hu hati ghalina; u la ddahhalniex fit-tigrib; iżda ehlisna mid-deni.
Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Final Blessing

The Holy Father extends his hands and says:

\textbf{V.} The Lord be with you.
\textbf{R/.} And also with you.

\textbf{V.} Blessed be the name of the Lord.
\textbf{R/.} Now and forever.

\textbf{V.} Our help is in the name of the Lord.
\textbf{R/.} Who made heaven and earth.

May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
\textbf{R/.} Amen.

The choir ends the celebration with an appropriate hymn. Meanwhile those who shared their faith experience and those who read the bidding prayers are received by the Holy Father.
